this is why we say after the flu that “we are better.” in fact, the cell-mediated exercise is largely responsible for immunity to cancer, auto-immune disease and other chronic conditions.

Statins are toxic, with serious effects on muscles and brain function.

Traditional Chinese medicine—deriving from a holistic philosophy—tends more to look at patterns and relationships of phenomena.