In my humble opinion the medicine you are taking far exceeds medical need even for people in extreme pain with terminal illness and you seem to make light of it.